

Tehnomanija moving to CTPark Belgrade North as part of its e-commerce expansion

Belgrade 08. December 2020 — CTP welcomes Serbia's leading electronics retailer, Tehnomanija, to Serbia's largest industrial park, CTPark Belgrade North. The company has leased a newly built, 20,000 m² logistics warehouse to support the large-scale expansion of its e-commerce activities.

Leading Serbian electronics retailer Tehnomanija have moved in to its new, 20,000 m² warehouse at CTPark Belgrade North in November 2020. The e-commerce hub is expected to create approximately 201 new jobs in the region. "We have big plans with e-commerce and our current spaces are no longer sufficient for us," explains Vojin Milić, Supply Chain Director. "We appreciate the opportunity to lease an entire, newly built modern building ideally located between Serbia's two largest cities, which are also our largest markets. CTP will now be part of our growth."

CTPark Belgrade North is perfectly located

CTPark Belgrade North—Serbia's largest industrial park—consists of three separate large-scale premium A-Class industrial spaces totalling 70,000 m² and a total area of over 15 hectares. The park is strategically located on the A1 motorway between the Serbian capital, Belgrade, and the city of Novi Sad, adjacent to the Novi Banovci exit and approximately 20 minutes from the Belgrade city centre. "The position of CTPark Belgrade North ensures very good connection not only to Belgrade but to all cities in the region," explains Vlatko Djuricek, Head of CTP in Serbia. "This, together with modern facilities, makes it extremely suitable for first-mile logistics and production. Proximity to the two largest cities in the country brings great access to a large workforce with direct public transport."
